

Title: Requests for Admission by Tara Batra

Case: Tara Batra vs. Punam A. Kumar & Others

Court: High Court of Delhi

Document Purpose:

This document seeks admissions from the respondents to establish facts related to the unauthorized changes in financial documents and accounts of Mrs. Veena Paintal.

Requests for Admission:

Admission of Unauthorized Changes:

Admit that you, Punam A. Kumar, were added as a co-holder to Mrs. Paintal's bank accounts without a written directive from Mrs. Paintal herself.

Admission Regarding Financial Benefits:

Admit that changes made to Mrs. Paintal's financial accounts posthumously have financially benefited you directly or indirectly.

Admission of Communication:

Admit that there was no formal communication with other nominees, including Tara Batra, regarding the posthumous changes to the financial accounts.

Admission of Legal Authority:

Admit that no legal proceedings or court orders were obtained before making changes to Mrs. Paintal's financial documents after her demise.

Admission of Financial Records:

Admit that the financial records provided to the court contain all transactions, including any unauthorized or disputed transactions, related to Mrs. Paintal's accounts from January 2005 to December 2021.

Instructions for Responding:

Respondents are required to admit or deny each request specifically.

Any refusal to admit the facts must be supported by a detailed explanation or legal justification.

Responses must be provided in writing within 30 days of receipt of this document.
